

THE ROANOKE AND SOUTHERN.

Making the Cut Through the Hill on the First Section.

The Road Will be Pushed Forward Without Delay—Extra Hands Will be Put to Work at Once—Before Many Months the Trains Will be Rolling into the City.

The work on the Roanoke and Southern railroad at this end of the line will soon be well under way.

The first four miles of Moorman & Co.'s contract has been sublet to Mr. Conway, of Winchester, and he now has a force of hands making the cut through the hill north of the base ball grounds.

The force will be enlarged, and mules and carts added Monday.

Mr. Conway will immediately strike camp on the right of way of the road just beyond the baseball grounds. He will also construct a temporary commissary, and expects by the last of the week to have several forces at work. He also expects to have his contract covered by laborers within two weeks.

Moorman & Co. will immediately prepare to strike camp on the four miles of their contract, which they will construct themselves.

They expect to have several forces on this part of the line, and the whole of it covered in a few weeks.

In a short time hundreds of laborers will be employed on the Roanoke and Southern within fourteen miles of Roanoke.

Quarrying for the stone for the masonry of the bridge across the river has already been commenced.

THE HILD-PARK CONCERT.

A Very Fine Entertainment at the Opera House Last Night.

The Hild-Park concert last night was a great success.

As said a man behind the Times reporter, the audience "anchored" everything.

Where everything is excellent, it is difficult to praise judiciously.

Each member of the combination is an artist, the Herr Professor being easily first; his violin playing is wonderful; from his first number, "Souvenir de Haydn," to the last, he held his audience spell-bound.

"Paganini's 'Variations di Bravura'" was a bewildering maze of melody played on one string.

"The Slumber Song" showed marvelous sympathy between the performer and instrument, and seemed a mother's soft voice crooning to her child, and just as the audience fancied it had fallen asleep it was awakened by the fantastic notes of a "Spanish Dance."

Miss Park is one of the best cornet players that has ever appeared here; is as beautiful as she is accomplished—her figure and bearing are perfect.

Miss Jocelyn was slightly hoarse, but her voice was of unusual compass and sweetness.

Mr. Gillette, though very young—the reporter had no opera-glass—showed talent and careful training. His voice is a baritone, smooth and sweet and full.

There was a good audience, but not as large as the concert deserved, and their appreciation throughout the evening was enthusiastic.

IT WAS W. P. CAMP'S TEAM.

Webster Drives Them Over Town and is Then Arrested.

Walter P. Camp, the real estate agent and broker, left his horse and buggy unattended yesterday for a few minutes and when he returned it was gone. An hour or so later a young man, apparently intoxicated, was arrested by Officers Mabry and Gee for carelessly and brutally driving a horse, and it was developed that the rig was Mr. Camp's missing property. The buggy and harness were badly damaged and the horse overdriven. The man gave his name as Robert Jones, but it was later ascertained that he was one Webster, against whom another charge is pending. He was locked up to await examination.

A Branch of the Epworth League Formed.

A branch of the Epworth League was formed at the Lee Street Methodist Episcopal Church last evening. An election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mr. Roberts, first vice-president (department of Christian work), E. N. Moore; second (department of mercy and help), Miss Atkins; third (department of literary work), Edward Smith; fourth (department of entertainment), W. L. Nyeum; secretary, Miss Jennie Hart; treasurer, A. S. Meacham. The object of the league, as set forth in the constitution, is to promote intelligent and loyal piety among the younger members and friends of the church; to aid them in the attainment of purity of heart, and to train them in works of mercy and help.

Saw It in The Times.

A short item was published in THE TIMES of yesterday to the effect that a Mr. Stark of Nebraska, had written to the secretary of the Commercial Club, inquiring if there was any farming land for sale in this vicinity. Last evening Mr. J. Hampton Hoge called at the rooms of the club and notified the secretary that he had seen the article in THE TIMES, and that he had a tract of 3,500 acres on the Roanoke, three miles from Blacksburg, which he was willing to sell to the yearning Nebraskan, at $20 per acre. There is a moral in this, if our merchants will think it out.

Domestic Infelicity.

Henry Walker and his wife aired their domestic infelicities at the mayor's court yesterday, with the result of both being placed under $500 bail to keep the peace for a year. Officer Gus Gee made the arrests.

The Gypsy Baron.

W. J. Lamb, agent in advance of the Conjugal Opera Company, will arrive today. This company will be seen here in the "Gypsy Baron" in a short while. The troupe numbers forty-five people.

THE TIMES is the only paper in Roanoke which receives by telegraph the daily markets of New York and Chicago.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—[Special]—Wheat trading large and weak, and panicky feeling existed. Speculative offerings were again heavy. There was a perfect avalanche of wheat thrown on the market after the price for December passed below the $1 mark. There was no support to market, buyers under present conditions not caring to invest. Influences were all more or less of weakening effect. Opening was a shade easier than yesterday, closing ruled weak and declined at last.

Corn, fairly active, firm tone; first trades being at an advance of 1/2 @ 1/2, owing to very light receipts, and ruled strong for a time, advanced 1/2. Longs then took advantage of the situation, and upon free realizing a large line being sold for a large trader in provision market, reacted 1/2, rallied 1/2 @ 1/2, became weak and closed with 1/2 @ 1/2 loss. Cash markets were fairly active and good demand prevailed, while offerings were rather light and prices were up 1/2 @ 1/2 and closed steady.

All About a Lover.

Lulu Patrick and Mary Miller, colored, had a rough and tumble fight on Railroad avenue, just west of Jefferson street, late yesterday. It was all about a dusky lover, and Mary played a tattoo on Lulu's face with her shoe. At last reports Mary was at large and Lulu was peacefully slumbering in the city jail.

MINERAL LAND.

I offer for sale 201 acres of Coal and Iron Land, situated in the Catawba valley of Virginia, eleven miles from Roanoke. The outlook for great developments on this property is splendid. The ore is a vein of soft brown hematite, 22 feet wide and assaying 50 per cent. metallic iron. And the coal prospects are fine—two shafts having been sunk, one 20 and the other 25 feet, through solid coal slate. The property also contains a mineral spring, which the analysis of Lehmann & Mager proved to possess remarkable curative powers for all kidney troubles, especially for diabetes. The enormous quantity of coal and ore that will be required for the large number of furnaces and other industrial plants in course of construction in Southwest Virginia will greatly increase the already large demand for these minerals, and consequently enhance the value of such property. Two railroads have been surveyed near the property, one of which the Roanoke and Craig railroad, and the other, the Virginia Western railroad, will afford valuable connections. Fuller information can be had by addressing H. ROSENHEIM, 413 W. Baltimore St., Baltimore, Md. nov5-5m

NOTICE.—All persons having relatives and friends buried in the City Cemetery are notified that if they will purchase a lot in Fairview Cemetery their dead will be removed free of charge.
